June 9-10, 2018 in Dollar Bay, Houghton & Chassell

Orrie DeCaster is a USDF Bronze, Silver, and Gold medalist. She is the owner of Hidden Creek Farm near Green Bay, WI where she operates her Orrie DeCaster Dressage training business. Hidden Creek Farm is a private training facility offering boarding and training for dressage riders and horses. Orrie was very successful as a Young Rider winning the individual Silver medal in 1997. She then went on to ride and train under Scott Hassler at Hilltop Farm for two years. After learning an incredible amount about breeding and training she returned to WI to start her own training business. She has worked and trained with many accomplished riders such as Curtis Sage, Mette Rosencrantz, Conrad Schumacher, Jan Brons, Lars Peterson, and many others. She has trained several horses from green broke up through Grand Prix. She currently competes Queenston at PSG and I1 whom she bought as an unbroke 4 year and took through the levels herself. She has also helped several event riders improve their dressage training and flat work. Orrie enjoys working with all level of riders and approaches each lesson with a positive attitude and wanting to educate and improve each rider and horse combination!
